Live Webinar: Dispelling Myths About COVID-19

Rosie Nguyen, Moderator, Dr. Julie Lam & Tracy Lam-Hine

Journalist Rosie Nguyen will speak with Dr. Julie Lam and epidemiologist Tracy Lam-Hine to dispel some of the rumors, myths, and misinformation about COVID-19 and COVID-19 vaccinations. This webinar will be available in both Mandarin and Cantonese.

Dr. Julie Lam

Dr. Julie Lam is the Chief Medical Officer at the Buddhist Tzu Chi Medical Foundation. She is also a Health Sciences Assistant Clinical Professor of Medicine at UCLA and Consulting Specialist with the County of Los Angeles. Dr. Lam has been caring for COVID-19 positive patients in the hospital and clinic since the pandemic began. She volunteered with the Los Angeles County Department of Public Health as a Disaster Service Worker and is an LA County COVID-19 Community Ambassador.

Tracy Lam-Hine

Tracy Lam-Hine is a social epidemiologist whose research interests focus on the health of multiracial Americans, racism and health, and applied epidemiology to improve racial health equity. Tracy is a doctoral candidate at UC Berkeley, works as an epidemiologist at the Stanford Center for Population Health Sciences, and was formerly an epidemiologist at the Marin County health department.

Dr. Karen Korematsu

Thank You

Rosie Nguyen

Dr. Karen Korematsu

Dr. Karen Korematsu is the Founder and Executive Director of the Fred T. Korematsu Institute and the daughter of the late civil rights icon, Fred Korematsu. Since her father's passing in 2005, Karen has carried on his legacy as a public speaker, educator and civil rights advocate. In 2009, Karen established the Fred T. Korematsu Institute to advance racial equity, social justice and human rights for all. The Institute's work has expanded from K-12 civic education to promoting Public civic engagement and participation.

Rosie Nguyen

Rosie Nguyen joined ABC13 in December 2021 as their Race & Culture Journalist. She is one of eight who are working at ABC-Owned TV stations across the country, expanding coverage of underrepresented communities. During her time in Utah, she won multiple awards including a 2021 Rocky Mountain Regional Emmy in the Breaking News category as an anchor during the destructive George Floyd riots. Rosie is the daughter of two Vietnam War refugees and speaks Vietnamese fluently.
